Containing the freſheſt Advices, Foreign and Domeſtick.

Venice, Oct. 25.

LETTERS from Conſtantinople bring Advice that there has really been a Tumult in that Capital, as was reported ſome Time ago, but that it did not laſt long, having been occaſion'd by the News of the Grand Seignior's Death, which the People ſoon found to be falſe. Thoſe Letters add, that great Rejoicings have been made in the Seraglio for the taking of Orſova and the Retreat of the Ruſſian Army; but that the People expreſs very little Joy on thoſe Occaſions, on Account of the Plague which makes great Havock amongſt them, and the exceſſive Price of Proviſions. The Grand Seignior in order to expreſs his Satisfaction at the Conduct of the Baſhaw who had the Direction of the Seige of Orſova, made him a Preſent of a magnificent Sabre, ſet with Diamonds; his Highneſs likewiſe order'd a Sum of Money to be diſtributed among the Janiſſaries employ'd in that Siege. The Grand Seignior has alſo made a Preſent of a rich Caftan, lin'd with Sables, to the Captain-Baſhaw, for his taking the Ruſſian Veſſels in the Sea of Aſoph.

Paris, Nov. 3. Before Cardinal de Fleury went from Iſſy to Fontainbleau, his Eminence received a Viſit from the Duke of Richlieu, to whom, amongſt other Things, he ſaid, as it were by way of Reproach, 'You don't 'acquaint me, Sir, with the Compliments which you 'have receiv'd upon your new Dignity of Lieutenant-'General and Governor of Languedoc.' It was the Cardinal who had engag'd the King to confer this Dignity upon the Duke of Richlieu, who politely return'd the following Anſwer: 'My Lord, you have laid an Ob-'ligation upon an ungrateful Creature, who can never 'forgive your Eminence for having ſo greatly ſurpaſs'd 'in Glory, Cardinal Richlieu, my great Uncle.' This Anſwer which diſcovers the Vivacity and Politeneſs of the Duke, has been commended in all genteel Converſations.

Paris, Nov. 7. The Counteſs de Thouloufe is more than ever in Credit at Court. The fine Qualities which form the Character of that Lady, preſerve her the Friendſhip and Confidence of their Majeſties. The Duke of Orleans, who was come hither from Fontainbleau, having received a Letter from the King to return to Court, to aſſiſt at a Grand Council which was ſoon to be held there, return'd thither the 4th of this Month. We have a Report, that if the King of Spain does not accede to the laſt Treaty of Vienna, before next Spring, his moſt Chriſtian Majeſty will ſend a Body of 10,000 Men into Tuſcany, in order to ſupport his Guaranty of that Dutchy in Favour of the Great Duke.

Hague, Nov. 14. Since the Deputies of the Admiralty of the Republick are return'd to Amſterdam and Rotterdam, after having conferr'd with the Members of the Government, ſuch Diſpoſitions are making as confirm the Idea which has been conceived of an approaching Naval Armament. It's ſaid that 7 or 8 Men of War will ſpeedily be equipped more than what are already actually employ'd, the Court of Spain being greatly diſtruſted by the States General. The Diſcontent which their High Mightineſſes labour under, in Regard to the Conduct of that Court, makes them ſtrictly attentive to any Enterprizes that it is in any Likelihood of forming to the Prejudice of the Republick. The States-General appear reſolv'd to have conſtantly ſome Ships of Obſervation in the Weſt-Indies, and a Squadron to cruize in the Mediterranean, or at leaſt till the Diſcuſſions on both Sides ſhall be determin'd. Letters from M. Vander Meer, dated about the Middle of laſt Month, take Notice, that hitherto all his Repreſentations have appear'd uſeleſs; and that the Court of Spain perſiſted in its unjuſt Pretenſions. It's ſaid that their High Mightineſſes had ſent Orders to their Miniſter to engage Mr. Keen, at Madrid, to employ his good Offices in Favour of the Republick; that this Miniſter had not fail'd of communicating this to the Marqueſs de la Quadra, who return'd an Anſwer to it no way ſatisfactory to the States-General.

The Britiſh Miniſter here was lately invited to a Conference with the Deputies of the States-General, with whom he continu'd two Hours. All that is at preſent known concerning the Subject thereof, which is kept very ſecret, is, that it related to the Affairs of Spain, and was occaſioned by a Letter which their High Mightineſſes very lately receiv'd from M. Vander Meer, wherein he gives very important Advices concerning the Deſigns of that Court in Regard to this Republick.

From the Paris A-la-main, Nov 15. A few Days ago Count Oſſolinski, Son to the Duke of that Name, fell out of a Window as he was reading, and no body being near him, he remain'd near three Hours Speechleſs; but being afterwards let Blood, he came to himſelf, and is now in a fair Way of recovering.

They write from the County of Caux, that the Marqueſs d'Eſpinary going a hunting with two Gentlemen of his Acquaintance, one of them lying in wait behind ſome Buſhes, was ſhot dead by a Servant belonging to the Marqueſs, who took him to be a Deer.

To-morrow a Grand Council is to be held at Fontainbleau on Affairs of great Importance.

Paris, Nov. 17. Since the Return of Cardinal de Fleury to the Court the Intrigues there ſeem to be a little diſſipated, or at leaſt they do not appear ſo openly as before. There ſtill, however, ſubſiſt three powerful Cabals, viz. that of the Houſe of Conde, which acts for the Duke of Bourbon, whereof he is Head; that of the Family of Noailles, ſupported by the Counteſs de Thouloufe, who works hard to get M. Chauvelin to Court again; and a third, which intereſts itſelf for the Duke of Orleans, tho' this Prince does not take the leaſt Pains to have a greater Share in the Magnagement of Affairs after the Death of the Cardinal, than he has at preſent.

We hear from Conſtantinople, by Letters of the 13th of September laſt, that the Plague makes greater Havock in that City than ever.

Letter from Petersburg, Nov. 18. N. S.

'This Day the Empreſs removes from her Summer 'to her Winter Palace. We have received Advice, that 'the Marqueſs de Botta is expected here from Vienna, 'in order to concert the Operations of the next Campaign 'againſt the Turks. All that we hear from the Ukrain 'is, that the Troops are already in their Winter Quarters, 'and that the Plague ſtill makes terrible Havock in Mol-'davia and Walachia. We are told that the Schach 'Nadir has ſent a Letter to the Empreſs, in which he 'aſſures her Imperial Majeſty of his earneſt Deſire to 'keep up a good Underſtanding with Ruſſia, and that 'the Embaſſadors he has ſent to the Porte, are not char-'ged with any Commiſſion contrary to that Aſſurance, Letter from Vienna, Oct. 22.

'We are aſſured that the Treaty of Peace between this 'Court and that of Verſailles, which has been ſo long 'talked of, was ſigned the 18th Inſt. by the Imperial Mi'niſters and the Marques de Mirepoix, Embaſſador from 'the King of France. We are perſuaded that his 'Sardinian Majeſty will accede to it forthwith; but it 'is not yet known how Matters ſtand with reſpect to 'Spain; however we flatter ourſelves that the Negoci'ations on the Carpet, relating to his Catholick Majeſ'ty's Acceſſion, will be crown'd with Succeſs, and that 'the Peace will be ſpeedily publiſhed with the uſual 'Formalities.'

'A Peace with the Porte ſeems to be further off than 'ever, for the Infidels ſtill inſiſt upon taking the Treaty 'of Carlowitz for the Baſis of Negotiation; ſo that we 'are making all Preparations for a third Campaign. The 'Expences extraordinary are computed at 11 Millions of 'Florins, ſix of which are already found, and it is not 'doubted but that the reſt will ſoon be rais'd. We have 'a Report that the Emperor is in Treaty with the Elec'tor of Bavaria, for another Body of 8 or 10,000 of his 'Troops, and that his Imperial Majeſty is likewiſe ne'gotiating a Body of Troops with the Elector of Cologn.

We hear from Warſaw, that the Dyet of Poland broke up the 16th Inſtant, N. S.

We have Advice from Hamburgh that an Alliance is much talked of there, by which ſome Powers may reſolve, upon certain Conditions, to guaranty the Meaſures ro be taken about the Succeſſion to the Ruſſian Empire.

Letters from Parma bring Advice, that the 5th Inſt. N. S. about 8 o'Clock at Night they felt a violent Shock of an Earthquake, which did great Damage to that City.

His Pruſſian Majeſty's Miniſter at the Court of Vienna, has deliver'd to the Emperor, a Plan, which, if comply'd with, will prevent all Hoſtilities in caſe of the Death of the Elector Palatine.

Dublin, Nov. 4. On Wedneſday Evening, the youthful Senators of our Univerſity met in full Aſſembly; the Conſuls, preceeded by 12 Lictors bearing Axes and Faſces, in the old Roman Manner. Mr. Parnell, Chief Conſul, made there a noble Speech, in a truly Roman Style, to which Mr. Chinery replied in moſt elegant Latin. Their Senatus Conſulta, or Laws to which Mr. Day wrote an excellent Prologue, were full of Wit and the keeneſt Satyr againſt Freſhmen, Cods, and Gauls: The Conſuls Chairs, rich with Lace and Fringe of the moſt curious Workmanſhip, were ſent as a Preſent to the Rev. Mr. J. Forſter; and what deſerves the higheſt Praiſes, they decreed, that the Money, which, on like Occaſions, us'd to be laviſh'd on a Public Entertainment, ſhould be laid out in buying Lamps to be hung up before the Hall, and other Public Places in that College; they decreed alſo two large Globes for Mr. Forſter's Building in the Quadrangle.

Edinburg, Nov. 6. Friday laſt an uncommon Cauſe was tried before the Lords, wherein their Lordſhips gave a new Inſtance of Public Spirit. A Meſſenger had exacted exorbitant Fees from a Debtor for Execution of a Caption againſt him, and ſtated an Account, wherein he pretended to charge the unfortunate Man with certain Sums for going at different Times to execute the ſame. Their Lordſhips therefore declared it to be againſt Law for any Meſſengers to exact Fees from the Perſon they go to apprehend, becauſe it is the Buſineſs of their Employer to ſatisfy them, and the Law had provided Relief in ſuch a Caſe: And to make the Interlocutor more publick, they ordered a Copy thereof to be inrolled in the Records of the Lyon. They further deprived the Meſſenger for ever of his Office, and fined him Ten Pounds. ---- Such a Proceedure muſt fill the Hearts of every one with the greateſt Pleaſure.

Extract of a Letter from Exeter, dated Nov. 13.

'On Tueſday laſt died near this City, John Ruſſel, 'Eſq; ſome Time ſince High Sheriff of Devon; he dy'ing a Batchelor, his Eſtate falls among his Relations: 'It is reported, that ſince his Death, they have found in 'his Houſe 40,000 l. in Specie and Notes; and it is ſup'poſed he died worth 70,000 l.

London, Nov. 16. Laſt Week died at Painſwick, in Glouceſterſhire, in the 77th Year of his Age, Jonathan Caſtleman, Eſq; This Gentleman ſold his Eſtate in the memorable Year 1720, for about 40,000 l. taking the Purchaſe Money in South-Sea Stock, at 700 l. per Cent. which Stock he had in 'til a few Years ago, when the 40,000 l. did not fetch him above 6000 l. yet notwithſtanding his Sufferings, he was a charitable Man, did much good with the Remainder of his Fortune, and was very well eſteemed in the Country.

On Thurſday laſt there was a Motion in Arreſt of Judgment, in the Court of King's Bench, by the Defendant's Counſel, in the Cauſe of Philips and Philips on the Bribery Act; but the Motion was over-rul'd, ſo the Verdict for the Plaintiff ſtands good. The Action was brought againſt the Defendant for being guilty of Bribery at the laſt Election of Bridgnorth, in the County of Salop, contrary to the late excellent Statute for preventing Bribery and Corruption in the Election of Members to ſerve in Parliament; for which Offence, the Defendant forfeits to the Plaintiff the Sum of 500 l. and becomes ever after incapable of voting at any future Election. It is to be hoped that this will be a ſufficient Warning to all Perſons not to engage in the like infamous Practices, ſince both the Corruptor and the corrupted are equally ſubject to the like Penalties; and, beſides, the heinous Sin of Perjury muſt attend all Perſons giving their Votes under ſuch ſcandalous Influences.

London, Nov. 18. Laſt Week a very uncommon Accident happened at Sir Thomas Stiles's, Bart. at Wateringbury, in Kent; Maſter Charles Stiles taking a Gun out of the Kitchen, not knowing that it was charg'd, preſented it at the Gardener 4 Times, but it did not go off; he afterwards put the Gun on his Shoulder, and went into a Room where Mrs. Bridger, the Houſe keeper, was drinking Tea, and ſtanding with his Back towards her, the Gun, by ſome Accident, went off, and ſhot her in the fleſhy Part of the Arm: Sir Thomas immediately ſent for a Surgeon, under whoſe Care ſhe is at preſent.

London, Nov. 27. They write from Teweſwaer, that upon Advice that the Neighbourhood of Orſova, with a Deſign to make Incurſions into the Bannat, Count Neuperg, General of the Artillery, has cauſed a Body of Troops to advance towards that City, in order to oppoſe the Infidels, re-inforced the Poſts of Carenſebes and Lugos, and likewiſe ſent Troops thither, to ſuſtain them, if Occaſion requires.

Letters from Baſtia, by the Way of Leghorn, ſay, that Count de Boſſieux has communicated to the Corſican Malecontents, the Preliminary Articles of Accommodation which he received from his Court; but that it is not yet known what Anſwer they have made to the French General.

London, Nov. 28. Our Letters from Genoa of the 12th Inſt. ſay, that they expect, in a ſhort Time, to hear what they have to depend upon, in relation to the Affair of Corſica; for according to Advices from Baſtia, Count de Boſſieux, the French General there, has receiv'd the Articles of Accommodation, which the King has been pleaſed to make between the Republick and the Malecontents, and is actually getting them tranſlated; after which he deſigns to go to Corte, at the Head of a Detachment, in order to publiſh thoſe Articles, and receive the Arms of the Corſicans. A great many People are of Opinion, that this laſt Circumſtance will meet with ſome Difficulty, thoſe Iſlanders having always ſhewed themſelves very averſe to it.

Thoſe Advices add, that a few Days before, a Corſican Friar, who is a Provincial of the Order of St. Francis, was taken up and ſent to the Tower of Baſtia, for preaching in favour of Baron Neuhoff, in order to ſeduce well-meaning People.

We hear from Naples, that the Captain of the Dutch Ship, on board of which Baron Neuhoff embarked, has been put under Arreſt in that City, for refuſing to ſail to Corſica, according to his Agreement with the Baron. They add, that two Paſſengers in that Ship went aſhore privately, and having taken Poſt-Horſes, immediately rid away to Rome, ſo that they could not diſcover who they were;

were; but they judge them to be the Baron and his Nephew.

On Thurſday laſt about 40 Gentlemen met at the Oxford Arms Tavern in Ludgate-ſtreet, to celebrate the Birth Day of the Ever-memorable Queen Elizabeth, after having heard an excellent Sermon preach'd at St. Martin's, Ludgate, by the Rev. Mr. Abbot, on the following Words, viz. And the Multitude of them that believed, were of one Heart, and of one Soul. Acts iv. 32. This was purſuant to a Donation left by one Mr. Scivedale, formerly of that Pariſh, who appropriated a Sum of Money, Annually, for a Sermon and a Treat for the Inhabitants of that Pariſh, for ever, on that Day. The Entertainment was very elegant, and the whole conducted with the greateſt Unanimity and Decency.

London, Nov. 29. We have received from Genoa the following Extract of a Declaration ſign'd by the Corſican Hoſtages at Toulon. 'That they were ſenſibly grieved 'when they heard of the Steps lately taken by part of 'their Countrymen, in Favour of Baron Neuhoff; that 'they diſown and diſapprove them, both in their own 'Names, and in the Names of the reſt of their Countrymen; that they look upon thoſe Steps, and ſuch like, 'to be vain, dangerous, and iniquitous, oppoſite to their 'Country's Happineſs, and contrary to the Reſpect and 'Gratitude due to the glorious Proofs of the moſt Chriſtian King's Goodneſs, in labouring to put an End to 'the Evils their Country groans under, &c.

They write from Leghorn, that the Chiefs of the Corſicans on the other ſide of the Mountains, have lately received a Letter from Baron Neuhoff, the Subſtance of which is as follows: 'That by drawing off from their 'Coaſt he only yielded to Time and Circumſtances; that 'far from abandoning the Deſigns he has formed for the 'Proſperity of the Corſicans, the Obſtacles he meets 'with will only render him more careful to overcome 'them, that their Fidelity and Confidence are the propereſt Means for contributing towards it; wherefore he 'exhorts them to perſiſt in thoſe Sentiments: That they 'muſt not be diſcouraged by any unforeſeen Accidents 'that may happen, which are inſeparable from all great 'Enterprizes, &c.

We hear, that a Patrole of Twelve of the Light Horſe will be kept between Hounſlow and Belfonde every Night, during the Winter. And the like Patrole on Finchly Common, to prevent the great Number of Robberies at thoſe Places.

London, Dec. 1. They write from Paris, that M. Gobert, Engineer at Nantes, has made Repreſentations to the King of Spain, that his Brother and Company have expended about 1,500,000 Livres in Experiments for weighing up the Ships loſt at Vigo, in 1702; upon which Conſideration he demands to have the Privilege, which his Catholick Majeſty revoked ſome time ago, prolonged only for four Months: They add, that theſe Engineers are actually about that Work, but they preſume they have not yet ſucceeded in their Deſign of paſſing Cables under the Ships, which Cables they intended to faſten to Floats of Timber when the Tide was out, hoping that the Floats riſing with the Tide, would likewiſe lift up the Ships, becauſe it is certain, that hitherto they have only made Uſe of Divers; among whom they have one who got into one of thoſe Veſſels, and brought out a Silver Lamp, which is valued at 3000 Livres.

London, Dec. 2. We hear, that for Eaſing the Inhabitants of the Liberty of Weſtminſter and County of Middleſex, from the Burthen of Quartering Soldiers, a Project is under Conſideration for building Barracks in the Meuſe at Charing Croſs.

London, Dec. 4. By a Letter from Trowbridge, dated Nov. 29, we have Advice, that the Weavers in the ſeveral neighbouring Pariſhes have met in a riotous and tumultuous Manner, and committed ſeveral unheard-of Outrages; at Melſham in particular, they inſiſted on the Clothiers advancing a Penny a Yard on Weaving, and upon Mr. Colthurſt's refuſing to advance the Penny, they enter'd his Houſe, and deſtroy'd all his Houſhold Goods, Cloth, Wool-yarn, and every Thing elſe belonging to him, afterwards pulled the Houſe down, almoſt to the Ground. The other Clothiers, to avoid the like Calamity, have given it under their Hands and Seals, by Articles drawn up by an Attorney, and regularly executed, to give the Penny a Yard. They are now 2000 ſtrong, and if not timely prevented, threaten Deſtruction to all the Clothiers round the Country that will not ſign the Articles.

On Friday Night a great many Clothiers and Blackwellhall Factors, went up to his Grace the Duke of Newcaſtle's Office, to lay their Complaints before him.

On Friday near 8000 Quarters of Wheat, and other Grain, were enter'd for Exportation to the Straits, France, Spain, and Portugal.

We are inform'd, that his Majeſty will ſoon confer certain Royal Titles on the Princeſs Auguſta, and Prince George, Children of their Royal Highneſſes the Prince and Princeſs of Wales.

They have ſtaked the chief Part of the Piles between which the Baſis of the Bridge at Weſtminſter is to be laid; and when finiſh'd, the ſaid Stakes or Piles are to be taken away.

Yeſterday the annual Sermon was preach'd at the Pariſh Church of St. Katherine Cree, order'd by Sir John Gager, Lord Mayor of the City of London, in the Year 1646, in Commemoration of his Deliverance from a Lion on that Day he met in a Deſart in the Turkiſh Dominions, which ſuffer'd him to paſs by unmoleſted.

The Directors of the Eaſt India Company being ſenſible how much the Demand for Muſlins increaſes, are determin'd to ſend for a larger Quantity than they have done of late Years, in order to ſupply the home Conſumption, and accommodate People with them, at an eaſy Rate; and they will in a particular Manner ſtrongly recommend it to their Committee of Warehouſes to conſider of proper Orders for Inveſtments in that Commodity; and we are aſſur'd that thoſe Gentlemen will in their private Capacities, promote the wearing of them in their Families, and as Proprietors and Managers of that Trading Corporation, take due Care for their own Benefit, as well as for the Advantage of the Kindom in general.

They write from Warſaw, Nov. 5. N. S. that they are aſſured by Advices from the Porte, and by a Turk that is newly arrived there, that the Grand Seignior has propoſed to the Czarina a Ceſſation of Arms, and to enter into Treaty with her, upon the Condition previouſly of reſtoring Oczakow, which ſome Reports ſay the Ruſſians have of themſelves already reſolved to abandon, becauſe of the great Difficulty of ſupplying that Place with a ſufficient Garriſon and Proviſions; for it is ſaid to require 10,000 Men, and that at preſent it is infected with a peſtilential Diſtemper; ſo that thoſe who are beſt acquainted with the State of Ruſſia, reckon this firſt Preliminary will be readily granted, foreſeeing how exceſſively it would drain the Country to recruit Count Munich's Army, which from 64,000 Men of regular Troops, is reduced to about half that Number, and thoſe wanting all Sorts of Ammunition; at the ſame Time it is ſaid Veldt-Marſhal Laſcy's Army is in a much better Condition.

They write from Vienna, that all the ill News that has come to that City ſince the taking of Orſova, occaſion'd the Emperor to expreſs himſelf in this Manner; Good God! Is it poſſible that Prince Eugene ſhould carry with him to the Grave all my Happineſs, and the Bravery of my Subjects! In ſhort, People are lately ſo accuſtom'd to ill News at Vienna, that Intelligence of the leaſt Shadow of Advantage over the Turks, not only cauſes Joy, but Surprize; which was the Caſe upon hearing that the Turks retir'd from before Ratſcha.

Advices from Vienna bring, That the Elector of Bavaria has propos'd to the Emperor, that if the War with the Turks ſhould continue, he would ſupply his Imperial Majeſty with all his Troops, and even with thoſe of the other Princes of his Houſe, upon Condition that he might command the Army. The Generals of the Emperor are terribly afraid, leſt his Imperial Majeſty ſhould be conſtrain'd to accept of this Offer.

From the London Daily-Post.

SIR,

Be pleas'd to give the following Lines a Place in your Paper, and you will very much oblige,

Your conſtant Reader, and humble Servant,

L. B.

The True Character of a BISHOP.

The Prelate's Office, full of Weight and Care,
Learn to perform; and learn no ſmall Affair.
The Gift of Continence if God has given,
A ſingle Life's the ſureſt Way to Heaven.
But if thy Conſtitution claims a Wife;
Once, and but once, be married in thy Life.
With Love and Gravity diſcreetly rule
Thy Houſe, for Manners to the Church a School.
Blameleſs Thyſelf, thirſt not for Wealth, nor Wine:
Sober, yet chearful; fond of Things Divine.
Let Poor nor Rich frequent thy Gates in vain:
The one relieve, the other entertain.
The Clergy and the Layman reconcile:
But let no Bribe thy ſteady Heart beguile.
Good Nature and good Manners ſhew to all;
Praiſe the Deſerving, pardon thoſe that fall.
Merit Applauſe, but never ſeek Renown;
And be Thyſelf an Honour to the Crown.
Learn this of HOUGH, and ſhew me, if you can,

Briſtol, Nov. 11. At the General Meeting of the Juſtices without Lawford's Gate, laſt Friday Night, the Grand Jury for the Gloceſterſhire Diviſion, gave in their Verdicts againſt 36 of the Riotous Colliers, againſt whom Informations were lodg'd; and we hear proper Warrants are accordingly iſſued out for apprehending them.

Two of their Company already taken, were laſt Monday by Three in the Morning, conducted under a ſtrong Guard to Glouceſter Caſtle; who, 'tis generally believ'd, will ſuffer Death.

The Soldiers have ſtruck ſuch a Pannick Fear throughout the Regions of Kingſwood, which with the unanimous Reſolutions that have been taken by the Juſtices to quell the Inſolence of its Inhabitants, that we have heard no more of their riotous Doings.
